SCIENCE

THE SCIENCE OF FIRE

<http://kidsactivitiesblog.com/47158/science-of-fire>

Fire is mystical to children. Therefore it is critical that children learn the importance of fire safety and that fire is not something to play with. That being said, it was fun to learn about the science of fire in this simple experiment for kids. We only needed a few basic supplies:

- 1 a few birthday candles
- 2 some play dough to hold the candles in place
- 3 a small spray bottle of water
- 4 a glass and, of course, matches

How Does Fire Burn?

1. We sprayed water on a burning candle. The cool water turned to steam when it touches the flame thereby taking away the necessary heat that the fire needs to continue burning. Findings: If a fire is hot then fight it by making it cool!

2. Think about what happens when we “Stop, Drop, and Roll”. We stop because running around would only fuel the flame with oxygen. So instead we drop to the ground and roll around which essentially smothers the fire by removing the oxygen that it needs to burn. We tested this by putting a glass over a lit candle. The glass didn’t even need to be completely covering the candle to reduce the flame or even extinguish it. Findings: If a fire needs oxygen to burn, then removing the source of fresh oxygen will quickly extinguish it.

3. A fire needs fuel to burn. This fuel could be in the form of logs in a campfire, gas from a stove, or a simple wax candle. We let one candle burn completely down and once the wax was gone the fire quietly went out on its own. Findings: Don’t feed a fire! Remove the fire’s fuel and it will no longer be able to burn.

FIRE TRUCK COUNTING

FREE PRINTABLE

Print fire trucks and use glass gems as counters purchased from a craft store.

*You can also use black gems on printable dalmatians (seen on this site).

ART

STOP, DROP AND ROLL NECKLACE

Print the page. Cut apart. Give each child one piece. Let them color and cut it out. Hole punch at the circles on the hat. Lace a yellow ribbon through the holes to make the badge on the helmet. Have the children string beads onto the necklace making a pattern.

**You could use red and yellow cut straws to string on the lace.

FIRE ALARM CRAFT

Use a white paper plate and add wiggly eyes, a nose, and a mouth. Pretend this is a smoke detector. Here is the poem that goes with it. I printed it and glued it to the back side of the plate.

**Can add a photo of batteries (or a drawing) on the back and talk about changing your batteries.

ALWAYS ALERT

I'm a smoke detector and I say "Beep".
(squat down)
I'm your nose when you're asleep.
(point to nose then pretend to sleep)
If there's a fire and smoke is all around,
(wiggle hand and fingers around)
I'll wake you up with a very loud sound.
(jump up and raise your hands high)
BEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEP!

FIRE BREATHING DRAGON

Materials needed: Paper cups, pom-pom balls, googly eyes, crepe paper, construction paper, stickers, liquid school glue, tape, pen, and scissors.

First, punch a hole in the bottom of the cup. I did this to all the cups pre-storytime.

Cut the crepe paper into 5-10 inch strips and tape to the inside lip of the cup.

You are going to want to tape the strips to the top part of the dragons mouth for maximum fire-breathing effects.

To decorate the dragon's face, glue two pom-pom balls where you'd like the eyes to be.

Glue the googly eyes on top of each pom.

Cut the paper into small triangles and folded them at the base. Then I glued them on using school glue.

DRAGON

FIRE FIGHTER IN ACTION POLE SLIDING CRAFT

- 1 piece of white cardstock
- Fire Fighter in Action Pole Sliding Craft Template
- Scissors
- Tape
- Paper towel roll
- Straw
- Foil
- Crayons or markers
- String or yarn (2 feet)

How to make your fire fighter in action craft:

1. Print out the Fire Fighter Template onto white cardstock. Cut and decorate.
2. Cut a two inch piece from the straw. Tape this piece to the back of the fire fighter.
3. Wrap the paper towel roll in foil and tape into place. Tuck the ends of the foil into the top and bottom holes of the paper towel roll.
4. Thread the string or yarn through the straw on the back of the firefighter. Then, thread one end of the string through the paper towel tube. Pull the string until the two ends are even and tie a knot, making sure that the string is taut against the paper towel roll. Turn the string so that the knot is hidden inside the paper towel tube. (see photos)
5. Your fire fighter is now ready for action! Slide him up and down the pole to prepare to fight fires!
